

Stunned in America: Sub-Crime Mortgage Crisis

By Mary Tootikian

AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2009. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 279 x 206 mm. Language: English Brand New Book  Print on Demand .If you think it is almost over - think again - the other shoe is about to drop. It is said that ignorance is bliss but WHAT YOU DON T KNOW about this credit crisis WILL HURT YOU in more ways than you can imagine. Your financial life is at stake. Your home equity is deflated. Your investment and retirement accounts are but a pittance of what they once were. We, the American people, have been victims of a crime that has landed us in a major recession. Are we headed into a full scale depression? Do you know that our politicians, with knee-jerk reactions, are passing bills into law that are delivering death blows to the barely breathing housing market? This book will reveal insider secrets. You will discover the fallacy of the credit scoring system and why the unjust closing of our credit is going to further destroy our recovery. You will see actual rate sheets that lenders forbid brokers from showing you, and you will be outraged by the recent pricing additions imposed by our government...
