The common thought of the occasion has found ready and constant expression ever since we began to assemble. The earnest scrutiny of faces and forms which the busy years have remoulded; the kindling light of recognition in eyes dimmed by advancing age; the unstudied exclamations of greeting; the eager clasp of hands long parted -these speak the ruling sentiments of the hour with a natural eloquence which no art can rival. It would be sheer dishonesty in me, however, to pretend that I am not glad of this opportunity to speak briefly in your presence, especially in this place, and to be known for the moment as a member of the 45th Illinois Voluntary Infantry. This is my native county, and Rockford, ever beautiful, wears for me the special and enduring charms of school-day memories and boyish pride. Nowhere else could I have taken prominent part in a reunion of the old regiment without feeling that I was usurping undeserved honors, but here I can almost play the host. Though I have wandered long and far, though other scenes have enticed and later ties have enthralled me, still, this is Home. Joining therefore with those of our...
