THE GIRL FROM PURPLE MOUNTAIN: LOVE, HONOR, WAR, AND ONE FAMILY'S JOURNEY FROM CHINA TO AMERICA

St. Martin's Griffin, 2002. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: "This is an intricately orchestrated cross-generational memoir, and one that is particularly successful in linking the world of China in the first half of the twentieth century to the opportunities and ambiguities of those Chinese who grew up as Americans. It is a subtle book that resonates in the mind as well as being a true family history that spans moods and generations."Jonathan Spence, author of The Search for Modern China and Sterling Professor of History , Yale University "Absolutely mesmerizing. It captures not only the soul of a family, but the essence of twentieth-century China."Iris Chang, author of The Rape of Nanking "A beautiful piece of memory and history. The Girl from Purple Mountain presents the intimacies and secrets of the Chai family set against the broad canvas that is China in the twentieth century. This is an amazing story of survival and endurance, fierce love and bitter resentments, and the failures and triumphs of the human heart."Lisa See, author of On Gold Mountain " The Girl from Purple Mountain is a wonderful resource for teachers of modern China, appropriate for introductory courses in East Asian Civilizations or East Asian Religions, and advanced courses and seminars on Confucianism or the history of modern China. The story of an unusual and resourceful woman and her family coping in China in the 1930s, Girl from Purple Mountain provides both context and challenges to abstract ideas about Chinese culture in general and Confucianism in particular. I have used The Girl from Purple Mountain for an introductory undergraduate course "Chinese and Japanese Religious Traditions" and for an upper level seminar entitled "Confucianism and Its Critics." My students were absorbed by the stories of Ruth and...
