He reared his children in respectability, and in this was sustained, encouraged and ably aided by his estimable wife, who still lives to enjoy the society of such of her children as are within visiting distance, and who reverence her for her kindness of heart and other womanly virtues. SIDNEY S. HALL. Sidney S. Hall was born in Addison county, Vermont, January 7, 1838. He is a son of George and Anna (Sumner) Hall, the former of whom was born in Berlin, New York, in 1812. He came to Michigan in 1845, settling in St. Clair township, which was then a wilderness. He remained there for two years, and then removed to a point five miles west of the St. Clair river, where he remained for six years, and then removed to Berlin township, where he purchased eighty acres of land, which was partially cleared. He finished the clearing of this land and carried on general farming. He died June 25, 1876. His children were: Sidney S., Helen, Martha, Solon and Caroline. George Hall was a Republican in his political views and served as justice of the peace and highway commissioner, and held all the offices pertaining to schools in his township. He held to the Universalist belief, and was a member of fraternal societies. He was a successful man and of good repute among his neighbors. Sidney S. Hall married Susan Chamberlain January 1, 1862. She was a daughter of Beekman and...
