Xlibris. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 148 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.4in. Set in a rural community of Clayhill, Georgia. A general book of fiction that depicts the life style of a small town community where everybody knows everybody. However there are hidden secrets and lies of the past that haunt the people who make every effort to maintain their upstanding images. The characters have a loving caring relationship with each other throughout the closely knit rural community. The main character in this previous published novel was Tara, the daughter of Sister Ree Kate. The other characters will lend themselves to much laughter, joy, and suspense as the story unfolds. In this church going community, people can easily make the smooth transition from secular activities to non secular behavior. Just everyday people who find their lives being reminiscent of the by-gone years of their ancestors. This community also experiences tragedy, death, victims, and cover-up. Money seemed to have just dropped in their lap and they use it for a new church building. Sister Ree Kates secret seems to always be on the verge of being revealed. Sister Ree Kate is a woman...
