York Authors Coffee Shop, United Kingdom, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 210 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. British diplomat Jess Turner is on temporary assignment in the Governor s Office of the Turks and Caicos Islands in the Caribbean. The coral sands and turquoise seas are stunning, but things are not what they seem. The locals are upset about boatloads of illegal migrants arriving from nearby Haiti on their shores, and fearful of the voodoo they bring. Tensions are running high. When the Governor is critically injured in a car crash, and a brutal murder occurs, Jess is left reeling. What she starts to uncover sends shockwaves through the corridors of power back in London. DI Tom Sangster is investigating criminal gangs smuggling migrants to Australia. While in Miami for talks with US officials on this global problem, he sees Jess passing through the airport. He visits her in the TCI to find out how the British Government deals with the migrant problem in their Overseas Territory. Soon, they are working together to uncover the TCI s dark and disturbing secrets. But a hurricane is approaching and, as with each revelation they get closer to the truth, they end up fighting for their own lives.
