After music by the Cadet Band, the Mayor, Hon. Frederick O. Prince, introduced the chaplain of the occasion, the Rev. Robert Laird Collier, who made an eloquent prayer. The Mayor then spoke as follows: - We are assembled, fellow-citizens, for the purpose of celebrating, more majorem, the anniversary of the Declaration of American Independence. It is fitting and proper that we should do so, for there is no event recorded in our annals more solemn and important than this great announcement to the world by the patriotic men of 1776, in Congress assembled, that the American colonies were no longer British dependencies, but free, sovereign, and independent States. What human act can be more grave and momentous than that which creates a nation? The four millions of people who hailed the dawn of the 4th of July, 1776, are now approaching fifty millions.
