What if you attempted suicide but were not sure if you had succeeded? What would you do if you were told you only had a week to live? When did you realize there is an alternative to the truth? Is it okay to murder a murderer? What befalls a woman who values outer beauty more than internal beauty? Was it Evolution, Creationism, or did something more simple ignite the Universe? How does a man know exactly when Death will come for him? What really happens when we throw a coin in a fountain and make a wish? How would you exploit your ghostly abilities if you suddenly died?
