Who would have thought an auto mechanic's son would become a dedicated poet? But that's what happened, and a later-life moment provided the inspiration for this new book of poems. In a conversation not long before my father passed away (at the age of 89) he confessed to me, I never understood your poetry! That set me on a project to write a book of short pieces of poetry that would appeal to everyone, particularly auto racing fans. The book is based on my researching a lot of racing history, interviews with fans, drivers, crews, lots of time at NASCAR events. I suppose I should also admit that I indulged myself and spent way too much money fixing...
